

Compensation Act Held Valid By The Court Of Appeals.

The workmen's compensation law was held constitutional by the Court of Appeals.

The court, in an opinion by Judge Carroll, held that the act of 1916 comes within the requirements for such a law stipulated in the opinion holding the 1914 act invalid.

As to the provision of the new act limiting recovery of alien widows and children to one-half the amount allowed resident claimants for industrial injuries resulting in death the court said it would withhold an opinion until a case involving that section was before it; but even if it should be held invalid that would not affect the remainder of the act.

The Compensation Board appointed by Gov. Stanley, composed of R. T. Caldwell, S. W. Hagar and Richard Thomas, already has organized and the act will become operative in August.

The suit was a test brought by the board against State Auditor Greene to compel him to issue a warrant for furniture bought by the Board.

The Lyceum Ladies' Orchestra A Treat Too Rare to Be Missed

THE LYCEUM LADIES' ORCHESTRA.

This city is fortunate indeed in that we are to have with us at the Chautauqua the famous Lyceum Ladies' Orchestra. This organization is composed of attractive and talented young ladies who have been organized and trained by the world's most noted experts in the musical training business, together with their manager, Mr. Septimus E. Barbour, well known as a teacher, pianist and baritone soloist.

In their tours all over the United States they have made for themselves thousands of friends and enthusiastic admirers among those who appreciate the best in music. The universal appreciation of their work throughout the south during their recent tour has caused the Alkahest to engage them for another tour, and it is with great pleasure that their friends and admirers look forward to the opportunity to hear them again at the Chautauqua.

In addition to the regular orchestra work, various members of the company will render vocal and instrumental solos, duets, quartets, etc., giving such a variety to the program as to make it one of complete enjoyment, and those who were not so fortunate as to hear them during their former tour of the south will all avail themselves of this opportunity to enjoy a treat which is too rare to be missed.

MRS. WILLIAM C. CHILTON, MONO-DRAMIST.

ALTON PACKARD, GREAT HUMORIST, TO APPEAR

Take a Grouch to Chautauqua and He'll Bury It For You.

At the Alkahest Chautauqua this year we will have an opportunity of hearing Mr. Alton Packard, one of the greatest humorists and crayon artists the world has ever produced.

Mr. Packard is a veritable genius of laughter. He is the original and only genuine and instantaneous cure for the grouch. If you are bothered with that affliction take it to the Chautauqua, and when you return to your home you will not only be cured, but will remember that there is such a thing as a grouch.

Packard's crayon work is rapid almost beyond belief, and his comments as he works, as well as some of his pictures, are simply irresistible. There is nothing that does more good than a good, hearty laugh, and enough of that tonic will make doctors' bills and drugs almost unknown. Let the whole city turn out in a body and hear Packard and lay in a supply of mirth that will last indefinitely.
